

SALOME

Salome

by Oscar Wilde (1854-1900)
Translated by Lord Alfred Douglas

The original 1891 version of the play was in French, followed three years later by an English translation. Salome tells in one act the biblical story of Salome, stepdaughter of the tetrarch Herod Antipas, who, to her stepfather's dismay but to the delight of her mother Herodias, requests the head of Iokanaan (John the Baptist) on a silver platter as a reward for performing the Dance of the Seven Veils.
